-Governor Hastings informed Greenville M. Godge, grand marshal of the military parade which takes place in New York on April 27th, the day of the dedication of the Grant monument, that he will be present to parcipate in the military parade with his entire staff. He also says that in all probability the entire National Guard of he state of Pennsylvania, numbering s 000, will be on hand to lend their aid in naking the affair one of the greatest this country has ever seen.

-Valentine Leffler, of Cambria county, was brought here on Wednesday last to answer for forgery. He was under $300 hail to appear at March term of court but as he failed to answer at roll call, Constable Samuel Peters, of Johnstown, was notified and he at once set about to locate the man. Wednesday he was successful and Mr. L. was brought to Indiana jail. His neighbors say hitherto he has always borne a good reputation. Leffler claims that he was ill at the time he was to appear in Indiana and he assigns this as a reason for not showing up.—Indiana Democrat.

On Saturday, March 13, Mrs. John Fox, of Defiance, Bedford county, suffered severe and possibly fatal injuries. She had a pot of meat on the stove with a tightly closed lid on it, and on returning to the house after a short absence found the pot dry and the room full of smoke. Seizing the pot she ran with it to the door, when coming in contact with the cold air exploded, throwing grease over her lathing, which took fire, which was exinguished by a neighbor, but not before Mrs. Fox's hands and face were badly

- Joseph Quinn, who lived in the Tenth ward, Johnstown, is missing and it is thought that he is demented. He left iome at an early hour Sunday morning without his coat and hat. For several days Quinn had been talking about going to Pittsburg, out of which idea his parents tried to dissuade him. Re still insisted on going, however, and in order to prevent his coat and hat were hidden. Sunday morning about 1 o'clock, Quinn walked out of the house. The family, thinking that he was about the premises, made no efforts to find him until a half hour later, when it was discovered that he had gone

-The matter of the compensation of the treasurer of Blair county was argued before the county auditors on Friday by Messrs, W. I. Woodcock for Treasurer Akers and A. V. Dively for the county. The auditors decided that the resolution of March 13, 1893, fixing the comsensation at I per cent, for all moneys received and I per cent for all moneys paid out must stand. This decision will materially affect the compensation of Treasurer Akers, as he otherwise would have received a total of 3 per cent, instead of a total of 2 per cent. The amount involved is about $4,000. It is understood that Treasurer Akers will appeal the matter to the court-

Discovery of Gold.

Redford, Pa., March 21.-There is great excitement in this region over the discovery of gold in the Tussey mountain. P. H. Schuss and D. Swayne, of Huntingdon, and C. M. Halderman, of Redford, have sunk a shaft to a depth of eighty feet, which reveals a bed of heavy red shale, containing 20 per cent, of copper and some gold. From the side of the mountain two tunnels, each 100 feet in lenght. nave been dug, and in them is found a gray quartz which contains a percentage of Professor M. C. Ihlseng, mining engineer it State college, assayed a sealed check sample containing $513 in gold per ton. Professor Ihlseng said: "I do not know that the sample I assayed came from Tusey mountain, though I believe the person who sent it to me is confident that it did,

"I assayed another rock which showed only $11 worth of gold to the ton. Even if the gold does not run higher than that the mine will pay, if properly worked." It is the intention of the owners to coninue prospecting and investigating. Mine Troubles.

There has been some trouble among the niners in Spangler and Hastings, this ounty. At the former place it has been onfined to the mines of which Mr. Schilliolent demonstration was made on Saturday. A mumber of the men are out on a strike, but several were at work Saturday went in a body to the mines and drove out the men who were working. They also tendent. Several shots were fired, but it has not been learned that any one was hurt. The trouble at Hastings arose over a proposition to put the men on "day work" instead of allowing them so much

Grading the New Road

The grading of the new spur of the Pennsylvania railroad from Lovett to Scalp Level was begun Friday morning. The job was begun with a force of about omen, mostly foreigners, who went to work with a will and are doing their hest in order to carry out the wishes of contracfor McMannus to have the contract com-

deted as soon as gossible. The machinery and tools that are to be sed in the work arrived at Scalp Level Thursday, being taken overland from Lilly. The implements to be used in the con struction of the road are of the latest improved make and will contribute to the speed with which it is expected to complete the new road.

Already Scalp Level has experienced a boom that promises to make it one of the most important towns in the county and a formidable rival of Dunlo,-Somerset

Must Have Big Pay.

'We be 'ieve that the compensation the (County) treasurer should be from $4,000 to $5,000 annually."-Gosling. Bosh! there are hundreds of good men in the county who would be willing to cut the Gosling's lowest estimate-$1,000-in two and perform the duties of the office for $2,000 and then think they had a boomea. Two thousand dotlars would be about the right figure and then let the treasurer elected attend to the office and draw all the salary himself. Four to five thousand dollars is ridiculously high, and ten thousand five hundred dolllars, the from the railroad bridge, present salary, is outrageous.

Lilly, Pa., March 24, 1897. DEAR FREEMAN: - We are happy to state the annual statement of the B. & L , of Lilly, is in a healthy condition, financially and otherwise. Charles Brown, of the gents' furnishing iouse, reports a McKlutey boom in his ine. We presume Charle's customers are liscarding the heavy weights. Several weddings are now slated to take effect after Easter, and why not say "well done" and go to Mullen, the clothier, for your wedding outfit, young men, and to George, C.C., miner, Portage twp. Jennie Brown's, the milliner, to complete your wedding robes, young ladies. For house furnishing goods, the town is full of them, but won't let the FREEMAN hint on what street or where they keep.

Father Bradley's lecture on the life of St. Patrick, on Suhday evening, was certainly a treat to all nationalities and denominations. The sacred edifice was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Contractor McMannus is still forwardng men and machinery to Scalp Level, to push through the South Fork extension to open up a large coal field and accommodate the Berwind people.

The town has nine legislators. Mr. Philip Evans was a visitor to town to-day. We can hardly credit Philip to the county capital as he was one of our Mr. John Brown, of Cresson, is around here gunning for votes and is certainly bagging the game. The office undoubtedly would be well filled by Brother Brown, But Chairman Englehart is authority for rallying the Bryan and free silver forces and says Brown, Wertz or Price won't be n it, and so we say all,

We trust all good municipalities, corporations and townships will publish their annual statements in the Freeman. The work will be well done and will reach nearly every home in the county with good taste for literature and facts,

We have read in Comrade Swank's paper the poem and eulogy on the loving christian virtues and sterling worth of the late Mrs. Sarah Jane Denny and cau only say that no hand or quill could transcribe her cherished life in letters that we, a former pupil, could not heartily endorse.

Obituary. We have been requested to publish the ollowing from the Brockwayville, Pa. Record. The deceased was a sister of Ex-Blacklick township, Mr. Ferguson and the family: Miss Hettie Ferguson died on the morning of February Is, 1897, at the home of her niece, Mrs. F. M. Brockway, in Snyder township, Jefferson county, Pa. She was the 67th year of her age. The deceased was born in Huntingdor ounty, Pa., in 1830, of Scotch Irish Pressystem parentage. She was converted under the ministerial labors of the Rev

Benjamin H. Thomas, and was by him baptized near the old Zion church in Claron county, in 1848, being then in the 18th year of her age. Miss Ferguson was a devoted and very onsistent member of of the Baptist church or a period of almost fifty years, commending the religioon she professed by an inwavering adherence to its principles and an abiding confidence in the atonement and intercession of her risen Lord; a faith that never faltered and was to her a stay and support; a sweet consolation in her years of severe trial, her afflictions work-ing out for her by divine grace a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, she looked for a city whose builder and maker is God. She could say in her greatest trial, "Not my will but Thine be done." Anx-ious to depart and be with Christ, yet willto wait the appointed time until her change came, she hoped then to escape the pains and infirmities of this life and resive a crown of immortal glory and be e forever with the Lord. She was a sufferer for almost a quarter of a century, and for lifteen years of her life entirely helpless. Her Christian graces shone out with more lustre as she neared her journey's end. Her faith grew stronger and her hopes brighter. She could say, "I am persuaded that neither death per life near death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor powers nor things present nor things to come can separate me from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." She enbeared herself to all with whom she camin contact, and particularly those whose constant care and kindness she enjoyed through her protracted illness, and o whom she often spoke in terms of the highest appreciation and commended them to that God who has promised to reward the gift even of a cup of cold water. The ten-derness and love manifested to her and so long continued, she hoped her Savior would regard as done to Himself.

It was the writer's privilege often to visit, read and pray with her during her liness, and to realize how faith in God carries us above the storms and sorrows of life into the perpetual sunshine of God's favor. She has entered into Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord. yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest rom their labor, and their works do
